Nicholas Marsh

Call: 2019

Barrister

Practice Profile

Nico has a broad practice across private family law and accepts instructions in financial remedies, Schedule 1, TOLATA, private children, and applications under Family Law Act 1996. He has successfully represented clients before every level of tribunal from the Magistrates to the High Court.

Nico joined chambers in 2021 after completing pupillage under the supervision of Nicholas Wilkinson, Phillip Blatchly, and Kyra Cornwall. During pupillage he assisted on a number of complex financial remedy cases including Goddard-Watts v Goddard-Watts [2019] EWHC 3367 (Fam) and AG v VD [2021] EWFC 9.

Prior to coming to the bar, Nico completed a masters degree in Chinese Law, where he placed first in his cohort and he also received funding from the Fung Scholarship to work at a Chinese university.
